Dear Parents, Our clubs are becoming very popular, please book your place to avoid any disappointment. We have plenty of spaces available at our breakfast club.

This week we have our 'coronation activities' on Thursday. Children can come to school in mufti—red/white/blue or as a king/queen/prince/princess. Also, please wear trainers as we have English sports in the afternoon. No Dolce hot dinners available. Please send your children with a coronation picnic and drink. Hopefully we can eat on the field. School will provide a 'coronation cake' to celebrate.

There are still some pupil's artwork to collect for £2.50.

Our pre-school application has been submitted to the DfE and we are awaiting the outcome, which should be by the end of May.

New reception children for September 2023 have been notified of their places. We still have some places left if you know anyone who is not happy with their primary school choice.

Kind regards, Mrs Fountain, Staff, Governors & Trust.

Our Y3 pupil represented our school at the church service on the 23rd April to welcome our new Revd, Nic Edwards. Our pupil was chosen to read part of a prayer during the service. He read so well and in-front of a packed church. We are all very proud of him. Well done.
